

Thursday 23rd January 2014

Name Joyana Hallett

LO - To be able to write a non-chronological report about badgers.

Brilliant Badgers

What do badgers look like?

A badger has a black nose and they have a long face. They have a long body covered in black and white fur. He has four short legs with five long sharp claws.

This is a young badger

This is a badger's paw print

What do badgers eat?

Badgers eat slimy, icky worms. They also eat squeaking mice, crunchy bird eggs and sweet juicy plums. Some times they even eat prickly hedgehogs.

Where do badgers live?

Badgers live in underground burrows, called setts. A sett has lots of chambers, some have are sleeping and others are for bedding, these are called latrines.

They keep them selves warm, in there setts by using grass and hay.

Fact Box - Baby badgers are called cubs