Anthology

Prepared by students from Year 7
In our Poetry workshop held 16th October 2014

Poetry is when an emotion has found its thought and the thought has found words.

I Wonder If They Have A Name

I was concentrating,

so hard

but I was thinking,

it's too hard.

The spider brought fear because I hate it when they're near.

I hate spiders so much,

it hurts my brain

I wonder if they have a name

Naomi Smith 7SOCA

Remember

What was there?

Oh no it is gone

It was from

from that door

What was that that thing over there didn't you see it?

Abbie Williams 7FRAB

Answer

Cold, hard terror,
Remember, Remember, Remember,
Who what where how,
I really need some answers, now.

Wondering who where why, It's getting worse the more I try
This life is a maze,
It is all a haze,
Who what where how,
I really need an answer now.

Holly Mortimer 7FRAB

Remember

Where have you gone?
I can't remember.
I try not to forget.
Where have you gone?

Jazmin Eady 7SANB

Remember, Remember,

Those good times we had;
Now everything's different;
You guys meant a lot to me no matter how many times you made me mad.

Don't you remember?
That time we ingenious inventors, oh yes!
We made p-bags whilst we were learning about the environment,
It was really fun but a horrible mess.

But near the end of my time in primary,
We really grew apart,
and although we've all got new amazing friends,
You will always remain in my heart!

Remembering

Sitting there, the objects whirling round in my brain.

I counted them, there were 15.

The easiest to remember was a lolly-pop,

a sweet,

a pen,

everything just in front of me.

Then before I knew it, time was over and the feeling dread came over me.

I won't remember them all, how many was there?

My pen to paper now, trying to get them down before I forgot.

I got eleven in total, but there was 15.

Love To Smile

I love to smile where love hits me.

I love to smile where ocean breezes hit my face.

I love to vote and see who wins.

Where energy hits me, it's great.

I Can't Remember Your Name

I can't remember your name
but I've seen your face I think for your name
yet all I find is a headache

What is your name
I can't remember your name
I've seen you before but I can't remember your name

I know it's not Bob or Fred it's not Tod either
what is your name
Oh I can't remember your name

Wait is it Malcolm no it's not
oh I can't remember your name
why can't I remember your name

Natalie Carman 7SOCB

Remember

Tears flow down the eyes

I wish I had one more moment to see your face again

All the memories flow fluently in my brain

The happy and the sad

Just one more time to see that smiling face

To see you again, to be reunited with your loving care

My mind was black

My heart was in pain

Love comes from the heart as

I remember your face!

Remembering

Remembering, remembering is so hard Sometimes I remember though I try not to forget I know it, but I just forget, I don't Think my brain's in my head yet.

Onysa Knight 7HAWA

Remember

I remember the keys sitting on the table top
I remember the paper clip saying come on have a shot.
I remember the sweet staring at me, lost.
I remember the calculator
typing 1, 2, 3.
I remember the glue stick sticking me to my bed.
I remember everything that pops in my head.

Jasmine Butcher 7SOCB

Remember, Remember

Oh such a word

Why can't my brain remember

Remember, remember

Oh such a word

Can never remember

Remember.

Love, Love

Good enough

Doesn't give much

Comes from the heart

Not the looks

Love Love

Good enough

My unused paper clip

I'm sitting on my chair doing my work and I see an unused paper clip I'm thinking should I take it or should I leave it and then suddenly someone picks it up and the paper clip was never seen again in my life. But just then a paper clip turns up again and I say I swear I've seen that before and I've missed the journey with the paper clip.

Daisie May Ling 7FRAA

Remember

Oh why, Oh why,
Remember
The things we did,
Remember, remember,
The times we had,
Sitting there on a chair,
Remembering time,
The times,
Oh why!

Nilanee Kuganathan 7SANA

Remember

When I look around me
I always think of you
When I can't remember
I always turn to you
You make me think of things that I can't remember So thank you thank you for being there

Lois Powell 7SANA

Remember

Remember the happy

Remember the sad

Remember the joyful

they're not all bad

Remember your holiday

Remember your fun

Remember the happiness

My holiday in the sun

I Know It's There

It was there,

I swear,

It came,

I swear.

Oh no,

It's gone,

Oh no don't think that,

It was there,

I swear.

Poppies and flowers,

even daffodils too,

you lie there,

I still think of you,

you were there,

I swear.
