

READ.....

www.theconversation.com/uk - This website is incredibly useful at supporting many of your A-levels. It provides up-to-date articles from academics and specialists in the fields written in a way that is accessible to all, summarising key points in short but insightful articles.

www.bbc.co.uk/news - An excellent source of up-to-date articles – explore the key headings such as Science, as well as the UK, World and other stories.

www.theguardian.com/uk - many useful articles and logically ordered. Keep an eye on the Environment, Science, Society and Global Development stories in particular!

www.bylinetimes.com – a new independent newspaper with insightful articles and commentary on world events.

COURSE DETAILS.....

<https://www.aqa.org.uk/subjects/geography/as-and-a-level/geography-7037>

All the information about the course can be found at the link above, including the specification and past papers.

WATCH.....

<https://timeforgeography.co.uk/> - Time for Geography creates inspiring, open-access geography educational videos for students of geography. A wide range of material is freely available on its website and is suitable for GCSE and A level students.

<https://encounteredu.com/> - Encounter Edu specialise in producing live lessons on global topics. These are accessible for students at home and could form part of preparation for A level study.

<https://www.geography.org.uk/Open-University-resources> - The Open University have produced a range of materials suitable for A level students and teachers, based on research conducted by geography academics at the OU.

GET AHEAD.....

See the transition pack for all the information to prepare for the start of the course in September.

GET ORGANISED.....

Come prepared at the beginning of term, this will help you to keep your notes and any handouts organised. You will need a ring binder folder, plastic wallets, file dividers, pen, pencil, highlighters, lined paper and a calculator.