LEARNING JOURNEY: KS4 19th Century Text: Jekyll and Hyde

KNOW IT

who Stevenson was and his motivations for writing the novella.
about the role of Evolutionary Theory within the novella.
about the importance of setting in the novella.
about the importance of Psychological discoveries within the novella.
about the theme of good vs evil.
about the role of a Victorian gentleman.
how secrecy and concealment are used within the
novella.
how violence is presented within the novella.
about the role of scientific discovery.
about the damaging nature of temptation within the
novella.
about the duality of human nature.
about the role of nature and the supernatural.
the role of Christianity in the novella.
about the role of social class within the novella.
about the importance of narrative voice and how this portrays a conflict in identity.
	who Stevenson was and his motivations for writing the novella about the role of Evolutionary Theory within the novella about the importance of setting in the novella about the importance of Psychological discoveries within the novella about the theme of good vs evil about the role of a Victorian gentleman how secrecy and concealment are used within the novella how violence is presented within the novella about the role of scientific discovery about the damaging nature of temptation within the novella about the duality of human nature about the role of nature and the supernatural the role of Christianity in the novella about the role of social class within the novella about the importance of narrative voice and how this	who Stevenson was and his motivations for writing the novella. about the role of Evolutionary Theory within the novella. about the importance of setting in the novella. about the importance of Psychological discoveries within the novella. about the theme of good vs evil. about the role of a Victorian gentleman. how secrecy and concealment are used within the novella. how violence is presented within the novella. about the role of scientific discovery. about the damaging nature of temptation within the novella. about the duality of human nature. about the role of nature and the supernatural. the role of Christianity in the novella. about the role of social class within the novella. about the importance of narrative voice and how this	who Stevenson was and his motivations for writing the novella. about the role of Evolutionary Theory within the novella. about the importance of setting in the novella. about the importance of Psychological discoveries within the novella. about the theme of good vs evil. about the role of a Victorian gentleman. how secrecy and concealment are used within the novella. how violence is presented within the novella. about the role of scientific discovery. about the damaging nature of temptation within the novella. about the duality of human nature. about the role of nature and the supernatural. the role of Christianity in the novella. about the role of social class within the novella. about the importance of narrative voice and how this

LINK IT

Remember, you will have covered some of this knowledge in your study of:

prove 1T:

SAY 1T

Vocabulary	Definitions
Metamorphosis
Duality
Pious
Degenerate
Calamity
Controversial
Anthropomorphism
Fin de siècle
Morality
Reputation
Irrepressible
Turpitude
Symbolism
Hierarchy
Narrative
Fin de siècle Morality Reputation Irrepressible Turpitude Symbolism Hierarchy	